

GLEN OF IMAAL TERRIER SKC 19

I was concerned that with a relatively small entry I would not be able to award the challenge certificates however, I felt that all the winners were extremely typical and soundly made with excellent temperaments.

Post Graduate - Dog Entries: 1 Absentees: 0

1st AMHARD OFF THE CUFF (MR M & MRS A HARDY). I admired his head and keen expression, lovely eyes, powerful muzzle, neat well carried ears. Good forehand with ample bone and slight bow. Strong body with good ribbing and some strength over the loin. Good profile action but could have a little more drive from the rear. Reserve CC.

1st CH GOLDEN SPURS (DR J ALSTEAD). My CC winner last time I judged the breed. He has an impressive head – strong and masculine but not coarse. Well balanced With a strong muscular neck and good shoulders and ample bone. Excellent body with strong loin and very typical topline. Free moving and in profile his action is most pleasing. CC & BOB.

Puppy - Bitch Entries: 2 Absentees: 0

1st JEONTY GOLDEN PRINCESS (MRS R HORTON). A good prospect with a grand head of fair breadth and length. Dark keen eye, well carried ears. Scored here in maturity of body and rib with a strong topline and good set on. Moved out well with some drive from the rear. Best Puppy.

2nd POACHERSMOON PUMPKYNPYE (MRS S J SUTTON). Pleasing in head and expression with a good strong muzzle. Good forehand with decent bone and slight bow to the legs. Typical topline, harsh coat and moved freely.

1st CH SIGRID HELGA AT PANTCOTTAGE (DR J ALSTEAD). Impressive with a skull of good length and breadth, neat ears, well set eyes. Excellent forehand with good bone, slight bow to front and nicely padded feet. Good body with a strong slightly arched loin. Well muscled quarters with adequate angulations. Very good profile action as she is free moving and sound. Shown in a good double jacket. CC.
